This licence is in force from:

13/05/2011

This licence will continue for as long as you continue to meet its terms. However, it will come to an end if you do not pay the necessary continuation fee by the date required. The licence may also face regulatory action including revocation if you operate outside its terms. You have paid for an initial period of five years, which starts with the date the licence was issued. The continuation fee must be paid before the end of the month before that five year period comes to an end and every five years after that. Please see note 1 below for further details.

This document is an operator's licence issued under the Goods Vehicles (Licensing of Operators) Act 1995 (the Act). The undertakings recorded in this licence have been given by the licence holder and are considered to be material to the grant of the licence. In the case of a licence first issued before 1 January 1996, the recorded undertakings include statements of intent made by the operator.

The maximum number of motor vehicles and trailers authorised in accordance with section 6 of the Act is:
